ERASMUS+ KA171 STUDENT MOBILITY FOR STUDIES APPLICATION ANNOUNCEMENT

ERASMUS STUDENT MOBILITY FOR STUDIES WITH PARTNER COUNTRIES WITHIN THE SCOPE OF THE 2025-1-TR01-KA171-HED-000341674 PROJECT

Makerere University, in partnership with Cag University, Turkey invites applications from suitable candidates from Uganda for a fully-funded Scholarship for the 2026/2027 Academic year. Applications are invited from Makerere University students in Accounting and Finance, Business Administration, Marketing, International Trade & Logistics, International Studies Program/ International Relations, Psychology and English Language Translation and Interpreting for the Mobility Program at Cag University, Turkey supported by the Erasmus+ Mobility Programme. The Programme is funded by Erasmus+ Programme under ICM /Erasmus+ KA 171 project. Erasmus+ KA171 is an exchange program conducted with partner universities in countries outside the European Union. The Programme supports students and staff in the frame of International Credit Mobility / KA171 * Cooperation on academic and cultural research. The Erasmus+ Programme aims at promoting equity and inclusion by facilitating access to participants with disadvantaged backgrounds and fewer opportunities compared to their peers. It is expected that upon graduation scholarship beneficiaries can proactively contribute towards socio—economic transformation of their communities. Student mobility will only be carried out in the fields specified in the project and with the project partner institutions. Exchange with another institution in the relevant partner country is not possible. More on Erasmus+
